Advent

It's that time of the year again. Advent. A season of waiting. There are four Sundays in Advent signifying hope, love, joy and peace. The final candle is called "Christ Candle" lit during our final service in Advent, to announce the birth of Jesus Christ, our Savior. What is so amazing this year is that Christmas is celebrated on a Sunday and I pray that you will set aside this moment as a sacred gift with your presence. The lyrics of the hymn "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing" will come to life as we offer "Glory to the newborn King."

The Good News of Jesus Christ is so welcomed today in our world faced with many challenges and uncertainties. The early disciples of Jesus were called "followers of the Way." Later on the disciples were called "Christians" in the city of Antioch. The term "evangel" which is the same as "Good News" started to gain prominence to describe the missionary zeal of the Church. Catholic, Orthodox, Reformed, Mainline Churches, Pentecostal, Evangelical became a part of the expression of the uniqueness of each tradition but united in claiming the unity of the spirit in Christ. But of course, Our Redeemer's is from the Wesleyan-Methodist movement. Something stirred in John Wesley and "his heart was strangely warmed" as he attended a service in Aldersgate.

Advent 2016 is different for many folks. We can no longer thrive in a culture of suspicion. Instead as we enter this season, it is with prayerful and hopeful hearts. Attentiveness to where God is present in our lives requires much from us. We light a candle when there is darkness because Christ overcomes the world. I heard stories from folks in the “front line” who receive the anxiety of our time— anxiety has many names like isolation, abandonment, harassment, loss of identity, belonging—to name a few. I recall the words of novelist and author of Gilead—that our anxiety is a forgetfulness that God is faithful. God is faithful to all of us and in this Advent let us allow the gift of “waiting” to bless us.

Mary said, “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant.” (Luke 1:46-48)

In December, when the night is long and the day is short, ancient people feared the solar light might never be kindled again. This is the gift of Advent. Christ rekindling creation.

Join us for our Advent Sunday services, Christmas Eve services (5 pm Family Service and Christmas play, 7:30 p.m. with our Chancel Choir and 11:00 p.m. with Holy Communion). Please note that we will have one service only on December 25 and January 1 at 10:00 a.m.

Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year to all.

See you in the Advent place,

Gifts from the Heart

by Carol Hollingsworth

On behalf of ChildServ and the children they serve, I would like to thank the generosity of the 54 individuals and families who sponsored 84 children for our Gifts from the Heart program. It is always so heartwarming to see the response from our congregation for these children, from infants through teenagers, who otherwise, would not have quite as bright a Christmas.

I would like to remind those of you who sponsored children, that the unwrapped gifts are to be returned, bundled together for each child, and labeled per instructions, on Sunday morning, December 4, to church.

“The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’ Matthew 25:40

Audience members are asked to bring a donation of basic household supplies and personal hygiene items for Veterans Exiting Homelessness.
