Proclaiming Christ into the 21st Century

Volume 2

February, 2017

Corner

“Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction.” (2 Timothy 4:2)

I am trying to recall the time when I first heard this epistle of encouragement. It was most probably when I was in a youth assembly and coming to terms with faith.

How shall we proceed and make the scripture speak in new ways? The church then and now is always at the crossroads.

This scripture is meaningful for Timothy because he was being mentored to continue the ministry started by Paul. When the church flourished, the daily life also flourished because there is greater concern for the welfare of one another.

Consider the description of a worship service in the Early Church: “On Sunday all meet and the writings of the apostles and prophets are read; then the leader delivers a discourse; after this all stand up and pray; then there is offered bread and wine and water; the leader likewise prays and gives thanks, and the people solemnly assent, saying, Amen.”

The structure and form of worship is different now but the content is always the same. What kind of “spiritual season” are we experiencing God through Jesus Christ?

In my confirmation class we talked about the season by drawing a circle, assigning corresponding colors associated with Advent, Christmastide, Epiphany, Lent, Easter and Pentecost. Each color is symbolic of God's movement in our lives.

In our cultural sphere the choice of color sends a powerful message—you just have to figure out what the message is all about. For the most part the colors represent inclusion and not divisiveness.

I like the way commentators reframe the visual sight as “channeling” the image of a particular person and an era.

I read that the most important word in recent days was “post truth” which suggest that we have to verify what we receive. If indeed what we receive is for the common good, then it is in an affirmation that God is doing a new thing in “our season.”

Join us in our community life at Our Redeemer's and celebrate the blessings of the season.

Community Renewal Society Platform for 2016-17

Our Redeemer's is a participating member of the Community Renewal Society, a faith-based social justice organization in Chicago with 90 member churches.

The predominately black city churches are charged with identifying their most pressing issues each year and we, predominately white suburban churches, work to support what they tell us are their most immediate concerns.

Our Faith in Action Team meets with legislators to explain our collective concerns and to ask them to support specific bills that CRS has identified and often helped to write.

All our work is done remembering that we are called by Jesus to advocate for those suffering injustice.

The specific bills for this year's platform are still in the developing stages. However, here are the platform issues.

1) Violence Reduction We reaffirm our commitment to address the issue of violence in Chicago communities.

We will listen to our communities to identify additional priorities and launch a new campaign that continues our work into 2017 to address root causes of violence.

2) Police Accountability We will renew our police accountability campaign by addressing police reform on a city and state level.

We will host community conversations on policing to identify priorities for community oversight and reforms to the police union contract.

3) FORCE (Fighting to Overcome Records and Create Equality) This is an initiative led by people with criminal records, their families, and faith allies.

FORCE is working to pass legislation that would create more transparency and fairness in the background check process for employment and housing, two of the most pressing and fundamental human rights.

They will also work to expand the sealing of non-violent felony records and to oppose legislation that creates new mandatory minimums and sentence enhancements.

If you would like more information on these issues, you may talk with Jack Denny, Annette Brown, Ellen Kobylewski, or Jill Wood-Naatz.

This event is for all who are in 7th-12th grades and all are encouraged to invite friends. This is an event we do each year through World Vision. The students ask friends and family members to sponsor them as they go on a juice and water fast for 30 hours. During that time we do Bible study, games, service projects, and more. The students start the fast on their own on Friday night at 3pm, come to church at 6pm, and we break the fast at 9pm on Saturday. It is an amazing experience and we hope you will join us!

See Marianne for a consent form and a fundraising packet.

*March 19 we will take the youth to the soup kitchen. We meet at church at 1:30 and carpool to the soup kitchen in Roger's Park. We prepare the food, serve the meal, and then clean up the space. On the way home we stop at fast food for dinner (please bring $). We return to church at 8:30pm.

Please let Marianne know by March 5 if you are planning to go.

From the Connect Ministry

It has been suggested that Potluck Groups make a comeback at ORUMC. However, we are in need of someone to coordinate this. Jerry & Shirley McDaniel did it for many years and are willing to share how it was done in the past.

Please see Pam Miller if you are interested in taking on this task. This does not have to be done by one person alone. A few people can work together to lighten the load.
